The graph shows the coupling coefficient as a function of the midpoint between Tx and Rx (m). The coupling coefficient is given in units of $10^{-6}$. The graph indicates a periodic pattern with maxima and minima at specific intervals along the x-axis.